Justin K. Thomas named “2015 Rising Star” in Tennessee

MEMPHIS, TENN.-- Justin K. Thomas of Thomas Family Law Firm, PLC has been named a Mid South “Rising Star” by the exclusive Thomson Reuters Super Lawyer rating service for the second year in a row.

Thomas was selected to the Mid South “Rising Star” list via a patented selection process involving peer nominations, independent research, and peer evaluations. The “Rising Star” designation is reserved for attorneys under 40 years old who exhibit excellence in practice.

“I am humbled and honored to again be included on this list,” said Thomas. “I’ve worked diligently to provide the best representation for my clients as they go through these family law issues. It’s a privilege to do what I do and an honor to be recognized for it.”

Thomas, founder of the Thomas Family Law Firm, PLC in Germantown, Tenn., focuses exclusively on family law issues in Tennessee and Mississippi. Thomas graduated from Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, University of Memphis, J.D., in 2005 and the University of Memphis, B.B.A (magna cum laude), in 2002. He was named a Top 40 Under 40 Family Lawyer in Tennessee by the American Society of Legal Advocates in 2014 and is both a published author and graduate of the prestigious ABA Family Law Trial Advocacy Institute in Denver, Colorado. He is a member of the Memphis Bar Association, Mississippi Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. Thomas is known for providing clients with efficient, creative ways to resolve family law issues.

"Super Lawyers is proud to provide visibility to outstanding attorneys," said Julie Gleason, Director of Research, Super Lawyers. "The Rising Stars List takes that step to the next level by highlighting those attorneys who demonstrate a truly exceptional level of accomplishment."
